

GDPR Student and Parent Privacy Notice

GDPR STUDENT AND PARENT PRIVACY NOTICE

Footsteps Trust Academy is committed to protecting the privacy and security of personal information. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about students, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), section 537A of the Education Act 1996 and section 83 of the Children Act 1989.

Who Collects This Information?

Footsteps Trust Academy is a 'data controller.' This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about students and parents.

The Categories of Student Information That We Collect, Process, Hold and Share

We may collect, store and use the following categories of personal information about you: -

- Personal information such as name, student number, date of birth, gender and contact information.
- Emergency contact and family lifestyle information such as names, relationship, phone numbers and email addresses.
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility).
- Attendance details (such as sessions attended, number of absences and reasons for absence).
- Financial details.
- Post 16 learning information.
- Performance and assessment information.
- Behavioural information (including exclusions).
- Special educational needs information;
- Relevant medical information.
- Special categories of personal data (including biometric data, ethnicity, relevant medical information, special educational needs information).
- Images of students engaging in school activities, and images captured by Footsteps' CCTV system.
- Recordings of students and/or parents from Footsteps' remote learning platform;
- Information about the use of our IT, communications and other systems, and other monitoring information.

Date of Issue: September 2023

Date of Review: September 2024

Collecting This Information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain student information to us or if you have a choice in this. It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

How We Use Your Personal Information

We hold student data and use it for: -

- Student selection (and to confirm the identity of prospective students and their parents).
- Providing education services and extra-curricular activities to students, and monitoring students' progress and educational needs,
- Informing decisions such as the funding of schools,
- Assessing performance and to set targets for schools,
- Safeguarding students' welfare and providing appropriate pastoral (and where necessary medical) care; • Support teaching and learning,
- Giving and receive information and references about past, current and prospective students, and to provide references to potential employers of past students,
- Managing internal policy and procedure,
- Enabling students to take part in assessments, to publish the results of examinations and to record student achievements,
 - To carry out statistical analysis for diversity purposes,
 - Legal and regulatory purposes (for example child protection, diversity monitoring and health and safety) and to comply with legal obligations and duties of care,
- Enabling relevant authorities to monitor Footsteps' performance and to intervene or assist with incidents as appropriate,
- Monitoring use of Footsteps' IT and communications systems in accordance with Footsteps' IT security policy,
- Making use of photographic images of students in school publications, on Footsteps website and on social media channels,
- Security purposes, including CCTV; and
 - Where otherwise reasonably necessary for Footsteps' purposes, including to obtain appropriate professional advice and insurance for Footsteps.
- To provide support to students after they leave Footsteps.

Date of Issue: September 2023

Date of Review: September 2024

The Lawful Basis on Which We Use This Information

Footsteps will only use your information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your information in the following circumstances: -

- Consent: the individual has given clear consent to process their personal data for a specific purpose;
- Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract with the individual.
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).
- Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
- Public task: the processing is necessary to perform a task in the public interest or for official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law; and
- The Education Act 1996: for Departmental Censuses 3 times a year. More information can be found at: <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>. We need all the categories of information in the list above primarily to allow us to comply with legal obligations. Please note that we may process information without knowledge or consent, where this is required or permitted by law.

Sharing Data

We may need to share your data with third parties where it is necessary. There are strict controls on who can see your information. We will not share your data if you have advised us that you do not want it shared unless it's the only way, we can make sure you stay safe and healthy, or we are legally required to do so. We share student information with: -

- the Department for Education (DfE) - on a statutory basis under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.
- Ofsted; Youth support services – under section 507B of the Education Act 1996, to enable them to provide information regarding training and careers as part of the education or training of 13-19-year-olds,
- Other Schools that students have attended/will attend,
- NHS; • Welfare services (such as social services)
- Law enforcement officials such as police, HMRC
- Local Authority Designated Officer
- Professional advisors such as lawyers and consultants
- Haringey Local Authority

Information will be provided to those agencies securely or anonymised where possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations, we require them to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We may transfer your personal information outside the EU. If we do, you can expect a similar degree of protection in respect of your personal information.

Why We Share This Information

Date of Issue: September 2023
Date of Review: September 2024

Footsteps does not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless otherwise required by law. For example, we share students' data with the DfE on a statutory basis which underpins school funding and educational attainment. To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the DfE please go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censusesfor-schools>.

Storing Student Data

Footsteps keep information about students on computer systems and sometimes on paper. Except as required by law, Footsteps only retains information about students for as long as necessary in accordance with timeframes imposed by law and our internal policy. Full details on how long we keep personal data for is set out in our data retention policy.

Automated Decision Making

Automated decision making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision making in limited circumstances. Students will not be subject to automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

Security

Footsteps has put in place measures to protect the security of your information (i.e., against it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way).

Youth support services

Students aged 13+

Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19-year-olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

We must provide the students name, the parents name(s) and any further information relevant to the support services role.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / student once he/she reaches the age 16.

Students aged 16+

We will also share certain information about students aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19-year-olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

The National Student Database

Date of Issue: September 2023

Date of Review: September 2024

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about students in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies. We are required by law, to provide information about our students to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as Footsteps' census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Students) England Regulation 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/nationalstudent-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data.

Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data> For information about which organisations the department has provided student information, (and for which project), please visit the following website:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-student-database-requests-received>
To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe> Requesting Access to Your Personal Data Under data protection legislation, parents and students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact Footsteps' Data Protection Team.

Requesting Access to Your Personal Data

Date of Issue: September 2023
Date of Review: September 2024

Under data protection legislation, parents and students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact Footsteps' Data Protection Team.

You also have the right to: -

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress.
- Prevent processing for the purposes of direct marketing.
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means; GDPR Student and Parent Privacy Notice Data Protection Page 8
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations. If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Footsteps' Data Protection Team in writing. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Right to Withdraw Consent

In circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact Footsteps' Data Protection Team. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.